

Patch Locations

How to tie your belt

When finished, it should look like this:

Step one: Find center of belt

Step two – four: Fold the belt around the waist with two ends in front of you.

Step five: Place the right end over the left end.

Step six – seven: Fold the new left end under both layers of the belt and pull tight.

Step eight – nine: Fold the right end under and over the left end and pull through.